

DAILY NEWS-SUN FRI. MAY 9, 1986

No diving

Steven Maupin, of Pegler-Welch Consulting Engineers, checks the ceiling of the Sundial pool building for structural damages caused by humidity and chlorine vapors. The pool was closed Wednesday through today for the investigation. Used for the job is a "cherry picker" that stirred controversy a couple of months ago because it couldn't get into the Sundial building. It has since been remounted on the truck bed. (News-Sun photo by M.J. Hoppes)